

Final Spelling Check

The last spelling check of second grade! Cover each word, listen to the definition, and write it from memory.

rainbow

an arc of colors after the rain

cheerful

full of happiness

brighter

more bright

thirsty

needing a drink

celebrate

to have a party for something special champion

a winner; the best at something

believe

to think something is true

unpacked

took things out

remember

to keep something in your mind

sparkle

to shine with little flashes of light

amazing

wonderful and surprising

grateful

thankful for what you have

Big Year Review: True or False?

1. A sentence always starts with a capital letter.
2. 'Rainbow' has the vowel teams ai and ow.
3. A verb is a describing word like 'purple.'
4. 'Believe' follows the rule 'i before e except after c.'
5. A paragraph needs a topic sentence and a closing sentence.
6. The suffix -ful means 'full of.'
7. A question ends with a period.
8. 'Champion' has three syllables.

Final Pattern Quiz

One last pattern check! Answer each one.

Circle the r-controlled vowel: t h i r s t y

Underline the prefix: unpacked

Underline the suffix: grateful

Divide into syllables: remember → _____

Which word has the igh sound spelled igh? brighter or believe? _____

Celebration Game: Word Riddles

Solve the final riddles of the year!

I appear when sun and rain work together. _____

I am what a gold-medal winner is called. _____

I am the opposite of 'forget.' _____

I am what glitter and stars love to do. _____

Reflection: Dear Third-Grade Me

Write a short letter to your future third-grade self. What are you proud of from this year? What do you want to remember? Sign your name at the end!

Celebration Drawing

Draw yourself as a word champion! Add a medal, a trophy, or fireworks -- you earned it. Congratulations on finishing second-grade ELA!